THE ROMANCE OF WORK, a pageant, and one of the greatest undertakings of its kind, will be held in Convention Hall, Broad street and Allegheny avenue, on Saturday evening, May 8, at 8:15.

The affair will be given by the Vacation Committee, and will be presented by many members of the Vacation Savings Fund. This savings fund society, which has its headquarters in Alcott House, at 1428 Arch street, was started some three years ago by a number of women who were anxious to arrange a way in which working women, by saving even a very small amount of money each week, might accumulate sufficient funds to cover vacation expenses.

The venture was taken up by women all over the city with great zest and very happy results. Entertainments and dances are given from time to time by the members.

The pageant on May 8 will illustrate the evolution of women's work, its past development, its present fields and its future promises. There will be five episodes embodied in the pageant, each picturing some distinctive period in the history of woman's labors, to be followed by a symbolic dance depicting the spirit of the episode.

Episode I—Work among the Indians; Fire Dance. To symbolize the element around which the industries of the primitive women were grouped.

Episode II—Work in Colonial Times; Spinning Dance; Minuet. Showing the traditional dignity and the conventionality of the times.

Episode III—Work in the South before the War; Military Dance. Suggesting spirit of 1860.

Episode IV—Modern Industrial Period; Steam Dance. Symbolizing the spirit of modern industry. Showing power and energy under control.

Episode V—Ideals for the future; Dance of Happiness; Dance of Children; Dance of Maidens.

A number of girls very prominent in social circles will take part in the affair, many of them debutantes of the season.

A large number of prominent Catholic ecclesiastics, foreign consular representatives and others equally well known in Spanish and other circles throughout the city will be present tonight at a reception to be given in honor of the Rev. Leandro Daydi, O. M. S., superior
